B) the environmental parameter of interest is a natural gas deposit (claim 50, in part),

C) the environmental parameter of interest is a dynamic change that occurs during an oil and gas deposit's development that affect its hydrocarbon composition (claim 51, in part),

D) the environmental parameter of interest is a dynamic change that occurs during an oil and gas deposit's development that affect its migration (claim 51, in part),

E) the environmental parameter of interest is a dynamic change that occurs during an oil and gas deposit's development that affect its depletion (claim 51, in part),

F) the environmental parameter of interest is a dynamic change that occurs during an oil and gas deposit's development that affect its hydrogen sulfite production (claim 51, in part),

G) the environmental parameter of interest is a mineral deposit (claim 52),

H) the environmental parameter of interest is an indicator of the mineral deposit's composition (claim 53),

Art Unit: 1637

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 45 and 46 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

2. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
